

Writing Family History course

A three session course over the Saturdays of June from 10 am – 12 pm; includes the meeting of the Writers Special Interest Group

Course 1017

This course will help family historians transform their research into shareable, engaging, entertaining and inspirational stories.

Sessions:

- 5 June; types of writing- genres, structures & components
- 12 June; writing skills- adding social history and context, dialogue & detail
- 19 June; join the writers' group, often with a professional writer
- 26 June; small serves- short stories, articles, poetry, photo essay & publishing

Cost: Members - $75

Non Members -$100

Where: Heraldry and Genealogy Society of Canberra

Education Room or Via Zoom

Unit 7, 41 Templeton St, Cook

To Register or find out more information:

See the Courses page <https://familyhistoryact.org.au>

Or email registration@familyhistoryact.org.au;